

Creating Conversations

The Creating Conversations program is designed to support families with children and young people with a disability. This program will provide you with valuable information, skills and tools. You will learn what to expect as your child develops and what supports healthy sexual behaviours and relationships.

Parent education session

Parents and carers will learn:

- stages of child sexual development
- practical tips to support learning at home
- strategies to support positive sexual behaviours and address behaviours of concern
- how to talk about sexuality and relationships
- strategies for answering questions

This is an opportunity for parents and carers to share ideas and discuss ways of communicating about sexuality and relationships with children and young people with a disability.

Duration: 1.5 hours

* $40 child care subsidy is available to support participation

Course details and registration

Please fill in the attached registration form and fax to 07 4927 6003 or visit the website, www.fpq.com.au to download a registration form for a course near you.

Family education sessions

In a small group setting, families (parents and child) will use resources and practise conversations about sexuality and relationships.

Families can choose from three groups:

- 0 – 8 yrs
- 9 – 12 yrs
- 13 – 18 yrs

Topics may include:

- body parts and functions
- being private
- puberty
- periods
- rules about touch
- healthy relationships
- staying safe – self protection

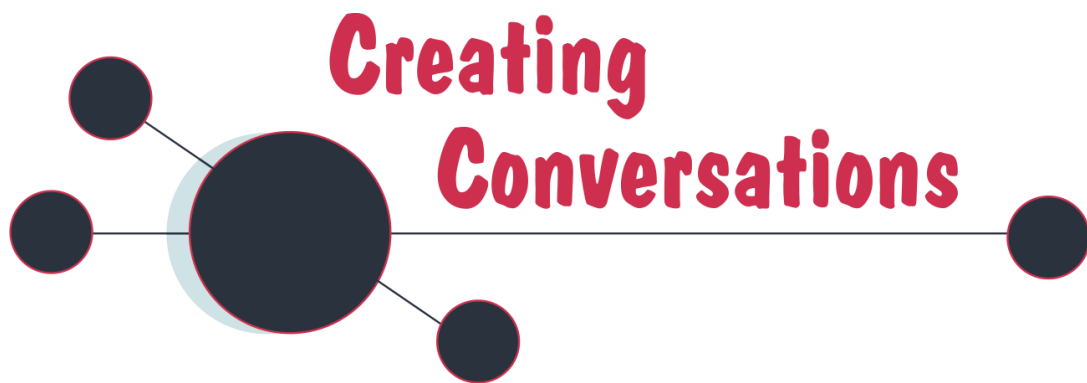

Duration: 1.5 hours

Maximum 10 families per group
