

Safe sex drive

FAMILY Planning Queensland will host a sexual health campaign tomorrow at Rydges Esplanade Resort promoting safe sex practices. The campaign, developed after consultation between key business and health stakeholders, will address the recent spike in sexually transmitted infections. Family Planning said Cairns is a hub for travellers who have visited areas with higher incidences of HIV infection.